A Locavore Artist Dinner with Julianne Baird

at the home of

Anita Dyer & Howard Swann

Enjoy a simple dinner prepared from local, organic ingredients in the Swann House. Designed by architect Steven Ehrlich early in his career, this 'modest mansion' is perched atop a ridge in the Santa Cruz Mountains with views of the entire Monterey Bay.

Winemaker John Schumacher of Hallcrest Vineyards and Organic Wine Works and amateur cook Anita Dyer will be working to pair tastes of Santa Cruz Mountain vineyards and farms in your glass and on your plate.

A Musical Interlude by Julianne Baird will complete this evening of sensual delights

5:30pm on Sunday, February 21, 2010

$50 subscribers & donors ♦ $65 general
Advance reservations only ♦ RSVP by February 15
